

LONG LIVE ANARCHY, CRIES SACCO IN DEATH CHAIR

Radicals Executed After Hectic Day of Last-Ditch Legal Battles; Neither Accepts Church

He sat up to the knee to permit application of the electrodes.

In each case examination was made by Dr. George Surgeon, medical examiner for Suffolk county, surgeon-general, Dr. William D. Joseph, J. McLaughlin, prison physician, and two physicians who were present as guests of the warden. These were Dr. Howard A. Leffert, of Boston, and William Olin Faxon, Dedham jail physician. The other official witnesses were Warden William Henry, Deputy Warden James Joseph, Sheriff Samuel Cayen of Suffolk county, and W. E. Playfair of the Associated Press.

The bodies were removed from the death chamber shortly after the execution and taken to the North Grove street mortuary, where an autopsy was to be performed by Dr. Magrath. Arrangements were made last night by Gardner Jackson, representing the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee, to claim the bodies later on behalf of relatives.

HURRIED LEGAL MOVES

MARK MEN'S LAST DAY

BOSTON, Aug. 22. (P)—The swiftest succession of legal moves in the seven years' fight to save Sacco and Vanzetti marked the last hours before the time set for their execution.

The day had marked defeat for them at every step. With the evening they not only appealed again to Gov. Fuller for "any kind of clemency" but tried one judge after another. A plea to Judge Anderson of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, who is at Williamstown, failed, the judge refusing to take action.

Judge Lowell of the Federal District Court refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus or a stay of execution. Then the attorneys went to Beverly to appeal once more to Justice Holmes of the United States Supreme Court.

Gov. Fuller heard women in office, but declines to halt execution.

BOSTON, Aug. 22. (P)—Shortly after 9 o'clock Mrs. Sacco and Miss Vanzetti, accompanied by Gardner Jackson and Aldine Pelletier, the defense committee, Miss Edith B. Jackson of New Haven, Ct., and Defense Attorney Michael A. Musmanno entered Gov. Fuller's office.

After Miss Vanzetti and Mrs. Sacco came from the Governor's office, Musmanno told reporters that Mrs. Sacco had pleaded for the Governor to show mercy toward her husband and his friend.

"You have children and I have children," she said. "You must look on this case as a father."

The Governor replied, Musmanno said, that he could do no more than he had done to investigate the case and the guilt of the condemned men.

The condemned men waited in their cells with no apparent change in attitude. Late in the afternoon they had said what they believed were their final words to those who came to hear them. Mrs. Sacco and Miss Vanzetti, wife of Sacco and sister of Vanzetti, from then until the execution hour the only persons they expected to see were the executioners.

Mrs. Sacco and Miss Vanzetti, wife of Sacco and sister of Vanzetti, from then until the execution hour the only persons they expected to see were the executioners.

At 8:40 p.m. Warden Henry notified Sacco, Vanzetti and Madrosio that they must die tonight.

Vanzetti was the only one of the three to make any response. "We must bow to the inevitable," he said, as he paced up and down his cell.

Madrosio was asleep and when the warden awakened him he appeared indifferent to the notification.

Sacco was writing a letter to his father in Italy. He began the letter to mail it for him and Henry promised he would do so.

The warden was accompanied by Chaplain Murphy, who again offered the prisoners the consolation of the church. Again they refused.

"The warden and the chaplain returned to the warden's office as the 9 o'clock 'lights out' bell was sounded.

Warden Henry paid a second visit to the prisoners a little later and said that all appeared "very brave." He added that he did not anticipate any trouble from them.

The last day was for both Sacco and Vanzetti a comparatively busy one. The forenoon was spent in the defense legal staff. He remained only a few minutes.

Rev. Michael Murphy, prison chaplain, then called on them with a final plea that they pray for themselves spiritually for death.

REFUSE SACRAMENT

He urged them to receive the sacrament and return to the faith which both forefathers many years ago, whether heeded his request, each declaring he preferred to die as he lived, outside the church.

Soon after the chaplain's visit Mrs. Sacco and Miss Vanzetti arrived. They remained an hour, sitting on benches outside the cells and conversing with the two men. Mrs. Sacco, sister of Madrosio, sentenced to die with them, although for another crime, arrived to see her brother.

While the women were in the death house Dr. Joseph I. McLaughlin, the prison physician, called on the condemned men. He found them apparently as cheerful as at any time. The men had slept well in the night and appeared rested. Vanzetti had taken an early-morning nap. Sacco had not been awakened until Father Murphy appeared. The men, according to the physician, were in good mental and physical condition.

Mrs. Sacco and Miss Vanzetti left the prison when the morning sun served. The two women then showed no signs of breaking down. Three hours later they returned to their final visit. They remained with the two men for an hour and a half. When they left they showed the effects of the farewell. Mrs. Sacco was weeping and Miss Vanzetti was supporting her face with a handkerchief to her face.

EAT FINAL MEAL

Shortly after the women left, the men were given supper, the last meal they expected. It consisted of soup, beef, tea, toast and fruit. Both men as well as Madrosio, ate the food.

During the afternoon Mrs. Sacco again visited by Attorney Musmanno with a habeas corpus petition which he asked them to accept. Vanzetti signed, but Sacco refused; as he refused when a similar petition was presented, previous to the respite granted twelve days ago.

The condemned men faced nothing in the way of preparation for execution. The clothing which they had worn regularly was to be unchanged, differing only in the fact that the trousers legs had been slit to receive the electrodes through which the death current is sent. Their heads were shaved, although one electric contact is made at the top of the head, by means of a dampened sponge in the leather mask placed over the face and head.

Within the death chamber all preparations had been completed. The chair was made ready several weeks ago for the execution that was then deferred. The executioner, Robert Elliott, whose arrival was secret, is said to have tested out the apparatus.

MADROSIO TO DIE FIRST

The execution itself was expected to consume less than a half hour for the three men. Madrosio, Sacco and Vanzetti, who were to die in that order. At midnight, the first was due to start the short walk from his cell across the corridor and through the death chamber to the chair. Approximately seven minutes is the usual time required for an execution and the second was to follow the first without delay and the third immediately after the second.

Only official witnesses, accredited newspapermen and those with special authority from the warden were allowed within the prison. Several scores of newspaper writers including many from other cities assigned to report the execution, were inside the walls. A dozen wires were set up to carry the story sent out by the representatives of newspapers and press associations.

Gov. Fuller Hears Women in Office, But Declines to Halt Execution

Artist's Cornet Laid Aside for Cobbler's Bench Lights Victory Ahead

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—If it comes to the worst Vincenzo Gentile will take up the cornet again, but his wife Anna, in doing her best to prevent her husband from taking such a desperate step.

Gentile faces deportation because immigration officials say he entered the country over a full Italian quota four years ago on the ground that he was an artist—that is, a cornet player. He gave up music and took to shoe repairing when he married a shoemaker's daughter.

Mrs. Gentile will appear in court tomorrow and ask that her husband be allowed to remain.

Sacco had felt the strain of imprisonment and that silence had indicated that he was abnormal in certain respects, and asked the Governor to consider a plea for Sacco, although he had not signed it.

The petition was accompanied by the statements of five newspaper writers who covered the trial, and these intimated that Judge Thayer was an amateur at Paris and Buenos Aires, the American Legation at Montevideo and other places in Mexico, Europe and South America.

The Governor and the advisory council then began separate investigations of the case. A large number of witnesses were examined and Sacco, Vanzetti and Madrosio were questioned in the death house, where they had been taken after sentence.

On July 17, while the investigations were under way, Sacco and Vanzetti went on hunger strike.

The Governor declared that he believed Sacco and Vanzetti were innocent and that both were guilty; that Judge Thayer had not been prejudiced; that he was not impressed by the "Madrosio evidence"; and that he would not extend clemency to either man.

Sacco and Vanzetti were Italian nationalists and Madrosio was a Portuguese.

After Gov. Fuller had refused clemency successive legal steps were taken by defense counsel. Justice Sanderson of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, and Judge Thayer of the Massachusetts Superior Court, refused intervention and were upheld by the full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court. Chief Justice Taft and Justice Holmes, Brandeis and Stone of the United States Supreme Court, declined to intervene.

Meanwhile Gov. Fuller and his council granted a further respite to midnight, August 22. Defense counsel applied to the United States Supreme Court for a review of the case and appealed to the Governor for a further respite.

JUDGE SCORES ALIEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—Radicals were given advice straight from the shoulder after Judge William B. Potter today when they were brought before him on charges of violent disturbances on behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti.

"On people might as well understand right now that you cannot run Chicago or this country," said the judge. "Organizations, associations, affiliations cannot and must not attempt to interfere with what courts of another State, or this State, you is to get out of."

The parade never passed the assembly stage. Telephone calls to the Boyle Heights Division of the police department advised the officers that a parade of Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers was being formed at Brooklyn avenue and 125th street. Captain Amman immediately dispatched forty officers in fast cars to disperse the gathering.

A firing squad of officers from Central Station also answered the call and in twenty minutes the scene of the proposed parade was cleared of more than 300 sympathizers.

Capt. Harrod, in charge of the night crew at the Sheriff's office, proved to be the only hero of the "outrage." "Stubby" quickly explained the scene, saying that he had obtained the gun which the caretaker as provender for his flock of geese. He had laid the gun at the "outrage."

Die After Seven-Year Fight

SACCO-VANZETTI AFFAIR'S HISTORY RECAPITULATED

BOSTON, Aug. 22. (P)—The crime for which Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were sentenced to die was the robbery and murder of a traveling salesman in 1920. The robbery was the first of the motions for a new trial. This was met by denials and a hearing on the merits. The supplementary motions for a new trial were made from time to time, but all were denied. Meanwhile Vanzetti was in the State prison. Sacco was held in Norfolk County Jail at Dedham. In February, 1928, Sacco began a hunger strike. Allen declared him sane and he was forcibly taken to the Psychopathic Hospital at Boston, where he had the "Madrosio evidence" and attempted suicide by beating his head against a piece of furniture. He did not die.

In December, 1934, the question of Vanzetti's sanity was raised and he was taken to Bridgewater State Hospital for observation. To April of 1935 he was declared sane. Moore withdrew as counsel for Sacco and Vanzetti. November, 1934. He was succeeded by Thomas F. and N. J. McManis. Later they withdrew and William G. Thompson, eminent Boston attorney, became counsel for the two men. Thompson argued before the Supreme Court of Massachusetts an appeal from Judge Thayer's denial of a new trial, but the court granted a further respite to midnight, August 22. Defense counsel applied to the United States Supreme Court for a review of the case and appealed to the Governor for a further respite.

SLAYER'S "CONFESSION"

In January, 1928, Celestino Madrosio, under sentence of death in State prison for murder of a bank cashier, made a statement in which he declared Sacco and Vanzetti were innocent of the Braintree murders and that in exchange for his own freedom he had committed the crimes. The gang Madrosio spoke of was the "Morrell gang" of Providence, R. I.

The defense committee sought a new trial on the strength of this statement. Judge Thayer denied this in October, 1928. Meanwhile, several papers, several of them from Madrosio, while an appeal was taken from Judge Thayer's ruling on the "Madrosio evidence" in April, 1927, the Supreme Court upheld Judge Thayer's decision on the Madrosio statement and a few days later Sacco and Vanzetti were taken to Dedham Courthouse and there Judge Thayer pronounced upon them the sentence of death.

By this time the case had attracted world-wide attention and petitions of astonished length, containing many thousands of signatures, had been addressed to the Governor. When Judge Thayer was about to impose sentence, he asked Sacco and Vanzetti if they had anything to say. Both made dramatic pleas of innocence and openly accused Judge Thayer of prejudice and of conducting their trial in such a manner that justice could not be had for them.

College professors had written books on the case. Criticisms of Massachusetts law crops into newspapers of standing and men and women of importance openly questioned the guilt of the two men and the fairness of their trial. Thousands of words had been printed about the case in pamphlets and circulars. The general tenor of the more conservative criticism of the trial was that it was held at a time when the nation was suffering from "war hysteria," and in other quarters the cry of persecution of radicals arose.

UP TO GOVERNOR

The chamber eventually focused on Gov. Fuller. He held the right of pardon, he could commute their sentences or he could prepare the way for a new trial. All those who were making efforts to save Sacco and Vanzetti turned their eyes toward Gov. Fuller.

Thompson carried to the Governor a petition from Vanzetti asking "not a pardon but justice." Sacco refused to sign a petition. Thompson explained to Gov. Fuller that the defense committee by a mob of 4000 workers, who were killed only after the entire police and army reserves were called out.

The mob tried to break into the American Consulate but was repelled after bitter fighting, in which police fired several shots. Pinned by the workers, yelling "Down with the police and the dirty Yanks," attacked the leading picture house, where an American film was being shown, breaking up the show and scattering the audience.

The mob then marched to large hotels, where hundreds of American tourists are staying, breaking a number of windows and threatening the visitors. The large windows of the American Express were broken in and two motor buses were smashed. City firemen with the aid of hoses helped disperse the rioters at midnight.

AMERICAN STORES IN BUENOS AIRES STONED

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 22. (P)—A crowd gathered in front of a newspaper office on the Avenida de Mayo started a demonstration along the thoroughfare as soon as news of the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti was posted. It began stoning United States commercial houses.

The police made every effort to break up the demonstrations. Reinforcements had to be called out.

BAY CITY POLICE JAIL 137 IN PARADE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—One hundred and twenty-seven persons who took part in a sympathy parade for Sacco and Vanzetti here today after a permit had been refused them for a meeting in the civic center, were jailed tonight on a charge of unlawful assembly. Ninety-nine of them were men and twenty-eight women.

The meeting had been called for 4 p.m. At that hour, a girl who later gave her name as Marya Reese, mounted an improvised rostrum and began:

SPEECH HALTED

"We are gathered here as one of countless similar meetings being held today throughout the world to voice our protest against the monstrous murder of two loyal workmen."

She went no farther. A squad of police advanced and ordered the throng to "move along." There was some arguing, but no force was necessary.

The apparent sympathizers swung in behind the girl and followed her to the headquarters of the San Francisco chapter of the International Labor Defense on Market street. Men with megaphones shouted from a third-story window to persuade to join them in their meeting. Miss Reese spoke again, saying:

MARCH TO JAIL

"We have no more illusions that Sacco and Vanzetti will be saved. They represent a cause for which

BOYLE HEIGHTS PARADE PREVENTED BY POLICE

A parade in Boyle Heights, dispersed with ease by police, and the discovery of a "false alarm" bomb at the Hall of Justice were the only incidents in Los Angeles marking the execution of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti in Charlestown prison at Boston today.

Added to this was a rumor that the Eagle Book plant of the Southern California Edison Company was to be dynamited. Deputy sheriffs on guard throughout the city, and dynamite or bombs throughout the night.

DRY FORCES TO DROP DRINKERS

Liquor Users Not Wanted, Lowman States

New York City Office Cuts Budget Expense

Twenty-five Men Discharged to Reduce Pay Roll

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—Prohibition agents admitted to the use of intoxicating liquors are being weeded out of the service, Mayor Lowman, assistant secretary of the Treasury, stated today in an unending progress in the reorganization of the enforcement machinery.

"Wherever we find a man who is inefficient and wherever we find a man who is not a prohibitionist, we are going to get rid of him," said Mr. Lowman. "We do not think that a man who drinks publicly should be an enforcement officer."

Mr. Lowman announced that twenty-five prohibition agents who have been operating in the city of New York were discharged today, reducing the force there from about 208 to 173.

The principal reason, he said, was that it was found that the prohibition agents were not doing their job. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—Superior Judge Louderback is willing to concede that a man's home is his castle, but insists that a wife's domicile is her sanctuary and she has the legal right to exclude her husband even though the home be community property.

On this basis he upheld today the action of Mrs. Lillian Glosier in locking herself in her bedroom to avoid her husband, George G. Glosier, an employee of the Fox Film Corporation, pending settlement of a suit for divorce.

BIRNBAUM MISSES FEAST

Former Police Commissioner Invited to Native Spread Fails to Attend Hawaiian Luau

HONOLOULU, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—L. W. Birnbaum, erstwhile Police Commissioner of Los Angeles, disappointed the natives of this volcanic village when, as the invited guest of honor at a Hawaiian luau, he failed to put in an appearance. Despite Birnbaum's absence, the natives proceeded with the feast that had been arranged for him.

The former Los Angeles police commissioner and his wife and daughter, who were touring the islands and on hearing of this, police department members of this city, most of whom are the only full-blooded Hawaiians left on the island, extended him an invitation to be their honored guest at an old-time luau.

The local police had completed elaborate plans for the entertainment, even to having the city band at the dock to welcome the former Los Angeles official.

The choicest of steaks, oysters, apples, bananas, lei-lau and guavas decorated the table spread for him, and the finest squid, salt pork, raw fish and the like were also at the luau.

NATIONALISTS IN CHINA REUNITED

Proclamation Foreshadows End of Disension

Removal of Government to Nanking Announced

Kuomintang Leaders Join to Check Northerners

PEKING, Aug. 22. (AP)—It was learned officially from Nanking today that the Wuhan government and the central executive committee of the Kuomintang (Nationalist political party) have issued a joint proclamation announcing the immediate removal of the headquarters of the Nationalist government and Kuomintang to Nanking.

This is taken as indicating that an effort at least will be made to reunite the Southern Nationalist factions in an attempt to hold off the Northern military threat. Wang Ching Wei and other Nanking leaders have already gone to Nanking, where the Kuomintang Nationalist party, having its headquarters at Nanking, is in opposition to the radical wing of the Nationalist or Kuomintang party, having its headquarters at Hankow.

The forces of Gen. Sun Chien-fang, the Northern commander, have reached the Yangtze at several points and all the Southern troops have been withdrawn to the south of the river.

Lottery Winner Loses Situation

EVEREDLOVE (Bristol) Aug. 22. (AP)—The lottery launched by the "Coastal" society of defense, aviation and chemical research, to provide funds for airplane construction, is not an unmitigated blessing to prize winners. Miss Sheila Salsanova, has learned to her sorrow.

In spite of regulations to the contrary she has been dissatisfied by the Everedlove railway department because she won a European trip in a recent "air-lottery."

The Water You Drink—Doctors Recommend Three Tests of Its Healthfulness

DOCTORS say, "Drink Three Pints of Water a Day." This is most important. For water is a primary source of health when consumed in these quantities daily.

But drinking water should first satisfy three health tests. First, it must be pure. Second, it must contain minerals—about 6 to 10 grains to the gallon. And third, it must be pleasant to taste. Any water that will not satisfy these requirements is below par for drinking purposes.

Purity First, consider the requirement of purity. Water must be free from germs, harmful bacteria or injurious chemicals. In its purest state, water comes from the clouds and melted snows of high mountains. When you drink it, therefore, its purity depends upon its freedom from contact with impurities.

Minerals Then water should contain the natural mineral salts that are in the body. These salts should be in the proportions that the body requires—4 to 10 grains per gallon. This is because water should be neutral, it should neither add nor detract from the mineral supply of the body.

Good to Taste And finally, drinking water should be good to taste. Water that is not enjoyable to drink is not good for you. Water that is good to drink is good for you. Water that is good to drink is good for you.

ARK HORSES LEAD IN NATIONAL GOLF CLASSIC; HELEN WILLS SCORES IMPRESSIVE NET VICTORY

Fidel La Barba Winds Up Fistic Career Tonight

CHAMPION GOES AGAINST VACCA

FROM FLYWEIGHT THRONE TO FRESHMEN ZONE

Such is the course mapped out for Fidel La Barba, shown here. He leaves the pugilistic realm after his fight with Johnny Vacca tonight and launches forth on the pursuit of knowledge. The old crown will be cast aside and the customary green skull cap, the badge of Fidel's manly brow. Yes, it's a tough life, eh, mate?

ILLNESS BEATS KITTY GODFREY

Forces English Net Star to Abandon Title Play

Berkeley Girl Defeats Local Junior, 6-0, 6-1

British Come Through With Flying Colors

FORREST HILLS (N. Y.), Aug. 22. (AP) Flashing the brilliant brand of tennis that has carried her along in an unbroken streak of victory so far this season, Miss Helen Wills started impressively today her battle to regain the American women's tennis championship.

Madeline, her first appearance in the national tournament since she ended her three-year reign in 1925, Miss Wills overcame a cold, California junior, 6-0, 6-1, in the first round. Except for a momentary streak of error-making that cost her the fourth game of the second set, "Helen the first" was in complete command, demonstrating why she is a top-spyder devotee to win back the title held by Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory.

Except for the unexpected withdrawal of Mrs. Kitty McKane Godfrey, captain of the invading British team, because of illness, the first round of the fourth national championship developed no upsets and few thrills. The six other British contenders advanced without difficulty as did Miss Kim Bousman, the hard-driving young Dutch champion, and such second American stars as Mrs. Mollie, Miss Helen Jacobs, Miss Eleanor Goss, Miss Penelope Anderson and Mrs. Charlotte Houser Chaplin.

Mrs. Godfrey retired from the singles today on the advice of her physician, but will play in the doubles, starting tomorrow, with Miss H. Harvey, as her partner.

Of the other invading stars, Miss Joan Fry, Miss Ellen Beaman and Miss Bousman gave the best exhibitions. Miss Fry had entirely too much speed for the New York and Western Time-sh. 1927.

DOEG WINS EASY TILT IN TOURNEY

Local Youngster Cops Straight Set Tiff in Newport Play

NEWPORT (R. I.), Aug. 22. (AP)—Youth came through the early rounds of the eleventh annual invitational tournament of the Newport Casino Lawn Tennis Association today with flying colors. Led by the 18-year-old John Doeg of California, a potent group of younger players made long strides toward the coveted challenge cup now held by William T. Tilden.

Only two of forty matches went to extra sets, six of the eighty players won two matches in succession, while others reached the third round by drawing byes. The six were Doeg, Wilmer Allison, University of Texas, intercollegiate singles champion; John Van Ryn, Princeton; John Hennessey, Indianapolis; Manuel Alonso, Philadelphia; Lewis N. White, Texas. Doeg defeated Dr. Carl Fischer, former intercollegiate champion, in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4, in the last match of the day. Doeg and White, side by side in the draw, will meet tomorrow in a third-round match. Three weeks ago at Seabright, White put Doeg out of the tournament in an early round.

Outstanding players who reached the third round through a bye and a victory including Berkeley Ball, another young Texan who lost not a game in beating Weller D. Evans of the Princeton team; Dr. George King of New York; Arnold W. Jones, Providence; Cranston Holman, Stanford; Frank Shields, national junior champion; Watson Washburn, S. Howard Voshell and Francis T. Hunter. Tilden failed to arrive in time to play today, but expects to overtake the field tomorrow, meeting George Owen, ex-Harvard football player, in his first match. George Lott, named with Doeg as alternate on the Davis Cup team, also is to start play tomorrow. Tilden will pair with Hunter and Lott with Doeg in the doubles, which start tomorrow.

MRS. PRESSLER COMING HOME

CHICAGO, Aug. 22. (AP)—Mrs. Harry Pressler of Los Angeles was homeward bound today with another golfing championship for the West, the women's western title, which she captured at Lake Geneva.

Mrs. Pressler defeated Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, 5 and 4, in the thirty-two-hole final Saturday. Unknown to tournament golf except in the West, Mrs. Pressler played the steady game of a veteran all week. She outdrew Miss Wall twenty-six yards at each tee, and Miss Wall's usually steady short game deserted her.

TAYLOR AND SANGOR BOX AT OLYMPIC

Bantamweight King Fights Featherweight Flash Here on September 13

Frantic bidding for the Joey Sangor-Bud Taylor fistic plum by rival Los Angeles matchmakers resulted in the match being landed yesterday by the Olympic management. It was announced at a late hour last night by Hayden Wadhams, Olympic matchmaker.

Both Dick Donald and the Olympic management were hot after the match. Until Wadhams landed the final punch, Donald was leading in the race because he was said to have had Sangor tied up and beat Wadhams to the ear of Eddie Long, Taylor's manager, by a sudden trip to San Francisco last Saturday, while Wadhams was waiting here to receive Long at the train.

Donald wanted the match for September 12 at Wrigley Field, but Wadhams landed it for September 13 at the Olympic. The bout takes the place of the scheduled Bert Collins-Pete Latzo skirmish, which went by the boards because Latzo, former welter king, is said to have outgrown even the middleweight limit of 160 pounds, while Collins' best fighting weight is around 154 pounds.

Having lost the Sangor-Taylor bout in spite of his trip to San Francisco and his personal ferrying of Manager Long to this city in his private hack, Donald said last night he is after a still better match—a go between Paulino, the Spanish wood-chopper, and George Godfrey, who knocked out Jimmy Malone in a round at Philadelphia last week.

Both Dick Donald and the Olympic management were hot after the match. Until Wadhams landed the final punch, Donald was leading in the race because he was said to have had Sangor tied up and beat Wadhams to the ear of Eddie Long, Taylor's manager, by a sudden trip to San Francisco last Saturday, while Wadhams was waiting here to receive Long at the train.

Donald wanted the match for September 12 at Wrigley Field, but Wadhams landed it for September 13 at the Olympic. The bout takes the place of the scheduled Bert Collins-Pete Latzo skirmish, which went by the boards because Latzo, former welter king, is said to have outgrown even the middleweight limit of 160 pounds, while Collins' best fighting weight is around 154 pounds.

Having lost the Sangor-Taylor bout in spite of his trip to San Francisco and his personal ferrying of Manager Long to this city in his private hack, Donald said last night he is after a still better match—a go between Paulino, the Spanish wood-chopper, and George Godfrey, who knocked out Jimmy Malone in a round at Philadelphia last week.

FUGAZY APPEALS FOR MANDELL-TERRIS GO

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (AP)—An appeal to the National Boxing Commission to compel Sammy Mandell to defend his lightweight boxing title against Sid Terris has been made by Promoter Humbert Fugazy. A similar protest recently was made by Abe Katz, manager of Terris.

DOEG WINS EASY TILT IN TOURNEY

Local Youngster Cops Straight Set Tiff in Newport Play

NEWPORT (R. I.), Aug. 22. (AP)—Youth came through the early rounds of the eleventh annual invitational tournament of the Newport Casino Lawn Tennis Association today with flying colors. Led by the 18-year-old John Doeg of California, a potent group of younger players made long strides toward the coveted challenge cup now held by William T. Tilden.

Only two of forty matches went to extra sets, six of the eighty players won two matches in succession, while others reached the third round by drawing byes. The six were Doeg, Wilmer Allison, University of Texas, intercollegiate singles champion; John Van Ryn, Princeton; John Hennessey, Indianapolis; Manuel Alonso, Philadelphia; Lewis N. White, Texas. Doeg defeated Dr. Carl Fischer, former intercollegiate champion, in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4, in the last match of the day. Doeg and White, side by side in the draw, will meet tomorrow in a third-round match. Three weeks ago at Seabright, White put Doeg out of the tournament in an early round.

Outstanding players who reached the third round through a bye and a victory including Berkeley Ball, another young Texan who lost not a game in beating Weller D. Evans of the Princeton team; Dr. George King of New York; Arnold W. Jones, Providence; Cranston Holman, Stanford; Frank Shields, national junior champion; Watson Washburn, S. Howard Voshell and Francis T. Hunter. Tilden failed to arrive in time to play today, but expects to overtake the field tomorrow, meeting George Owen, ex-Harvard football player, in his first match. George Lott, named with Doeg as alternate on the Davis Cup team, also is to start play tomorrow. Tilden will pair with Hunter and Lott with Doeg in the doubles, which start tomorrow.

MRS. PRESSLER COMING HOME

CHICAGO, Aug. 22. (AP)—Mrs. Harry Pressler of Los Angeles was homeward bound today with another golfing championship for the West, the women's western title, which she captured at Lake Geneva.

Mrs. Pressler defeated Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, 5 and 4, in the thirty-two-hole final Saturday. Unknown to tournament golf except in the West, Mrs. Pressler played the steady game of a veteran all week. She outdrew Miss Wall twenty-six yards at each tee, and Miss Wall's usually steady short game deserted her.

DERING SETS TRAP MARK

VANDALIA (O.), Aug. 22. (AP)—Guy Dering, Columbus, Wis., president of the American Trap Shooting Association, broke 300 straight targets in the class championship, opening event of the grand American handicap tournament starting here today.

Frantic bidding for the Joey Sangor-Bud Taylor fistic plum by rival Los Angeles matchmakers resulted in the match being landed yesterday by the Olympic management. It was announced at a late hour last night by Hayden Wadhams, Olympic matchmaker.

Both Dick Donald and the Olympic management were hot after the match. Until Wadhams landed the final punch, Donald was leading in the race because he was said to have had Sangor tied up and beat Wadhams to the ear of Eddie Long, Taylor's manager, by a sudden trip to San Francisco last Saturday, while Wadhams was waiting here to receive Long at the train.

SEEK DAVISCOURT FOE

So Promoter Looks for Somebody Else

Jim London, the Greek mat champion, will not meet Dick Daviscourt in a finish bout in Lou Doro's all-star mat show at the Olympic, the 31st last, or any other date for some time to come, it was announced last night following a conference between the wrestler and promoter.

London raised greater objection to a finish bout with Daviscourt than he did against the percentage of the gate receipts he was to receive for his services. Doro offered him 25

RIFLE MATCHES UNDER WAY

CAMP PERRY (O.) Aug. 22. (AP)—America's marksmanship classic was under way here today when hun-

per cent of a win or a draw. The Greek chose the first, but he believed a two-hour time limit should have been met instead of letting the bout go to a finish.

Daviscourt gave London more punishment in the hour the two were in the ring last week than the latter has received in any of his bouts here. He could not touch Daviscourt, while the latter seemed to enjoy slamming the little Greek to the mat time and again with headkicks.

With London definitely out of the picture as Daviscourt's opponent, Daro has started looking over the big fellows to pick out one who can give Daviscourt a fight in a finish battle.

John Pesak, the Nebraska tight man, may get the first bid for the bout. He was reported to be an-drawn to Boston. The nation began firing off the small-bore ranges as the first event on the program of the national rifle and pistol matches.

Paul Jones, Nick Lutze, the Chicago wrestler, the "Foot" McNally, Colorado cowboy; Jack Sherry, the Alaskan Indian, and Frank Schlicht, the German giant, are among the other candidates for David's next match. David expects to send one of these today.

TUNNEY DOES ONLY LIGHT ROAD WORK

SPECULATOR (N. Y.) Aug. 22. (Sp) Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight champion, in training here for his fight with the former titleholder, Jack Dempsey, confined his activities today to road work and to rowing on Lake Pleasant.

During the entire summer the champion has kept in the pink of condition and has only just begun intensive training for the battle at Chicago on September 22.

Ring training at present is held on alternate days. The champion was in action with his sparring partners yesterday and took a rest today.

HOAX CHARGED
IN CAVE STORYGuide Accused of Fraud to Get State RoadTennessee Mine Inspector Advises GovernorCavern Not Attractive to Tourists, He Says

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) Aug. 22. (AP)—O. P. Pile, state mine inspector, today reported officially to Gov. Austin Peay that Lawrence Ashley's disappearance in Rich-Jack Cave near Knoxville, Tenn., was a "fraud perpetrated for the purpose of securing a State highway by the cave."

Mr. Pile's statement charges Ashley and other inhabitants of the section, including members of the rescue crews which returned with "fabulous stories of wonderful halls in a six-mile-long cave," were in the plot, the secondary purpose of which was to give the cave publicity and to attract tourists. He stated the cave is unattractive to tourists.

Ashley, Pile charges, did not stay in the cave. Mr. Pile said he took fifty miners into the cave to search it and left one stationed at the door. The party had not gone far, he said, when it was recalled to see Ashley appear from the woods and hurry off.

HEIRS TO GET CASH IN 2427

HOLLAND (Mich.) Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—A unique investment for posterity was made today in one of the local banks by William Stelmans, a fruit dealer.

He deposited $1 with a deed that the accumulated amount at compound interest cannot be distributed until the year 2427.

The deed stipulates that only male descendants will benefit. Descendants living in Michigan will receive 75 per cent and those in other States 25 per cent of the amount.

ASHLEY DEFERS MAKING STATEMENT ON CHARGES

CHATTANOOGA (Tenn.) Aug. 22. (AP)—"I don't care to make any reply to this ridiculous statement at this time," Lawrence Ashley said when called by long-distance telephone and informed of charges by O. P. Pile, state mine inspector, that his cave episode was a hoax.

LUCKY DELAY

An accident to a ship once brought her owner a small fortune. She was sailing from Hawaii to New York with a cargo of sugar, when she ran into very bad weather and damaged one of her propellers so badly that she could only steam at half-speed. Meantime the price of sugar went up, and when she arrived at New York her cargo had increased in value by $30,000.

COOLIDGE PARTY
ARRIVES IN PARKPresident Ready for Week of Fun in YellowstoneGov. Erickson Gives Him
Rod for Fishing TripsExecutive in Holiday Mood
and Jokes Freely

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Aug. 22. (AP)—With a week of sight-seeing and rest before them, President and Mrs. Coolidge came into Yellowstone National Park today to view its grandeur on a program which might have been arranged for any less distinguished but ambitious tourists.

It calls for a steady gallop through the cloud-hooded mountains and through valleys bubbling with geysers and hot springs from howl until Saturday—a program of "pretty much on the hoof," as the President himself put it.

They had scarcely settled themselves for the first night's stop in the spacious residence of H. W. Child, president of the Yellowstone Hotel Corporation, when they slipped the covers for an automobile drive to Camp Roosevelt to visit the Tower Fall region.

CROWD ON HAND

Returning to the evening they rested in the Child home across from Mammoth Hotel for the crowded week's itinerary before them.

Even here in this wonderful land of nature, where everything is peaceful and sparsely populated, large crowds gathered to greet the President's movements. His arrival at Mammoth was a good deal like coming to a gay week-end party where the guests stood in front of the lodge and waved a "hello" in the manner of folk on vacation away from their everyday cares.

And for the President and Mrs. Coolidge this is to be a week of genuine pleasure—actually the first of this kind Mr. Coolidge has had since he entered the White House. Apparently anticipating the pleasure, the President was inordinately talkative and jovial. It is not usually his custom to talk much when stopping on trips, but today as his train passed through Montana cities, he sparred verbally with some of the folk who came down to his train and asked Gov. Erickson of Montana about a mistaken assumption of Livingston's population. He was on a holiday and seemed to be in a holiday mood.

LIVELY TIMES

Reaching the Yellowstone while the vacation season is still in full swing, the President will be in the midst of some lively times. Hundreds of guests are crowding the hotels where music from the jazz instruments of college boys helps to while away the evening and in the daytime there is ample opportunity for horseback riding, fishing and hiking and many places to go for sightseeing.

No one knows definitely just where the President and Mrs. Coolidge will go in the park or how long they will stay at any one place. The formal itinerary is carefully framed, to include most of the important sights of interest, but it has been announced that the trip is designed so changes may be made to suit the President's fancy.

All through this schedule read the words "fishing if desired," and plenty of information about the geysers, mountains, hot springs and other points of interest.

DRIVE FIVE MILES

President and Mrs. Coolidge reached the Yellowstone shortly after luncheon, leaving their train at Gardiner, Mont., and driving five miles to Mammoth.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were just finishing breakfast when the train reached Billings and soon left their table to come out of the rear platform.

"Hello, Mr. Coolidge," someone cried in true western style, "how has the fishing been?"

The President had just partaken of a whitefish for breakfast and he smilingly rejoined that "the fish are fine in the train."

Among the Montana welcome at Livingston were Senator Wheeler and Representative Leavitt and O. M. Leavitt, Republican National Committee member. Gov. Erickson boarded the train with Mrs. Coolidge and their son John. The President and Mrs. Coolidge invited the Governor and Mrs. Erickson for luncheon and John sat with John Coolidge, who is making the trip with his parents.

FLYING UPSIDE DOWN

There is a popular belief that an aviator may often fly upside down above the clouds and not know it unless he uses some instrument. The army air service, however, says that an aviator in possession of all the facilities would be aware of the fact if he were upside down for any length of time. In perspective of the altitude at which he might be flying, it is possible in dense clouds for an aviator to lose his sense of direction and not be aware of the fact that his machine was in a steep spiral unless he consults instruments.

It is also possible that the flyer might become dizzy or confused during maneuvers in the clouds and not be able to tell whether or not his machine were right-side up. [Pathfinder.]

BLARNEY STONE WEARING AWAY

More Than 27,000 Americans Have Kissed Blarney to Gain Blisk Tongues

COBBE (Ireland) Aug. 22. (AP)—More than 27,000 American tourists have kissed the Blarney Stone this year.

Blarney Stone is gradually wearing away, partly by the action of the elements and partly by the damage done by tourists in their effort to kiss the stone. Its potency, however, according to the common belief, remains the same. This has been described by one Irish writer in the following words:

"The touch of Blarney Stone creates smooth and graceful lips of the first magnitude with a sweet, persuasive tongue with women, full of guile, blandishment and potent flattery."

PARIS Aug. 22. (AP)—The survivors of the little body of American volunteers in the French army at the beginning of the World War will be charged with the task of lighting the flame at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier on August 24, the anniversary of the incorporation of the first American volunteers, members of the American Legion were informed today.

Of the twenty American boys who went into the French Foreign Legion at that time there remain alive, so far as known, only four: Joseph W. Gannon, president of the Volunteers Association, Bobbedouh, James Bach and Jean Mouret. The latter is a brother of Maurice Bouvet, the dancer who died in Switzerland recently.

These four will be charged with the task of lighting the flame on the evening of every anniversary of their incorporation, August 24.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Alice Beatrice Hoppe, divorced wife of William Frederick Hoppe, billiard champion, was awarded the complete custody, except for one month in the summer, of her two children, William Thomas, 8 years of age, and Alice Beatrice, 15, by Supreme Court Justice Peters today.

"After consideration of the opposing affidavits and a personal interview with the children," Justice Peters said, "I am convinced that the best interests of the children will be served by awarding their custody to the mother. The allowance for the maintenance and education of the children is fixed at the sum of $18 for each month that they are in the custody of the mother."

-Everyone can make good Movies now

HAVE you ever made a movie of your boy in action? Just as he is today? As he never will be again? And have you ever shown that movie in your own home, on your own silver screen? If you haven't, this message is addressed to you.

For the day of Home Movies is here. Now, thanks to years of research and experiment in the laboratories of the Eastman Kodak Company, you can make real movies of your children, your friends, of the places you go, with the assurance of professional results.

Home movie-making—simplified
Anyone who can take an ordinary snap-shot can make a Ciné-Kodak Movie. The camera is simplicity itself! You sight it either from waist height or eye level. Then just press a button... instantly it whirles into action... every scene before you, every changing sequence of light and shadow... is registered for all time on your film.

No focusing. No tripod. No grinding crank. Just a simple button to press when you wish to make a picture. A smooth-action, spring-driven motor takes care of the rest.

Then, no troublesome developing. No bother or fuss. Your films are finished at no extra cost, and returned to you ready to run and show on your own silver screen.

RODIER FABRICS ARRIVE

New Silks and Velvets are Lovelier in Color, Texture than Before

From the looms of this French master weaver have come many precious fabrics, but none more beautiful than these new importations of Bullock's. Metal and silk embroidered velvets and silks extravagantly lovely in coloring, in modern and exotic designs. The first showing of new imported fabrics at Bullock's this season. Silk Section, Bullock's Second Floor.

Among Bullock's Services—

Bullock's Hosiery Repair—Runs are effectively repaired and pulled threads and seams replaced. This service at nominal charge. Hosiery accepted for repair only when laundered.
Fleeting—Hemstitching—These among many other services of a like nature. Fleeting which has attained such a fashionable vogue is accomplished expertly by Bullock's. On the Street Floor.

Formality and Feminism

A new combination—and interesting. Charming expression in the all-important vogue of velvet. Velvet for daytime, dinner and evening wear.

Velvet That is Transparent

A velvet so soft, so fine that it is actually transparent when held up to the light. Exquisite in color. And done into dresses, evening wraps, ensembles of satisfying simplicity.

Off the Face Over the Neck

New hats go in for this off the face movement, youthful, amusing. And new hats fit down over shaggy necklines—practically, smartly.

Such new Autumn hats are among those exciting admirations at Bullock's new. Third Floor.

Suits, Trousered at Bullock's

Evidently adapted from the idea advanced by the famous French couturiers that sooner or later women will adopt the wearing of trousers. This little suit, whose skirt, though made in the conventional manner, is cuffed at the bottom and sharply creased according to the manner of a man's pants! A hip rest skirt with hip pocket. Its short little double-breasted coat molds the figure and its collar has notched lapels. Seen in tweeds and covert cloth in Bullock's Collegienne Shops at $35.

Molded Lines in Cossak Coats

Keyed to the "Collegienne" type are coats of camel's hair with all the vera and dash of the Russian Cossak. The coat models
the figure to the waist line, where it is securely belted. The skirt of coat flares smartly.

New Paris Bags of Reindeer

A decided tendency toward soft, feminine fabric finds expression in the last word in handbags—
Paris bags, selected in France by Bullock's. Reindeer, the softest suede imaginable is found in deep black. Shoulder bags, with metal trimmings in a modern art manner. $17.50 and up.
Handbags, Bullock's Street

Correct Gloves for Sports Occasions

With the Southern California sports season continuing the year round sports wear is naturally given much thought.
Bullock's shows at all times correct sports gloves, for golf, for motoring, for every occasion.
Soft, flexible capecskin, goat, pigskin or chamois. The smart, correct styles, some as low as $2.95 a pair. Women's Gloves, Bullock's Street Floor.

When in Doubt

The Way Out—
—is to consult with Bullock's

points of Fashion, and of Etiquette are dealt with on Bullock's Fashion Floor, the third.
Queries as to home furnishings should be addressed to the Advisory Bureau on Bullock's are, of course, without obligation on your part.

Festive Linens for Autumn Parties

—The loreliest of Autumn dinner parties will be served on tinted Damasks," says a hostess who should know. Women well informed in the ways of the social world will want to see this smart, new napery from Bullock's Linen Room, Second Floor.

Quite Early in September

Bullock's is going to announce an exposition of Mohair fabrics! These materials, by the way, will give you a new appreciation for mohair for draperies. Not only are these very lovely in texture and color, but they are wonderfully durable and can be actually washed.
What next!

Reds and Golds and Browns

—make interesting Slip Covers for Chairs that need re-upholstering. Cottons and Linen fabrics are more stunning than ever in these tones. Did you know that Bullock's will tailor Slip Covers to your Chair's or Sofa's own measure? Ask about it in the Drapery Section.

Woolens as soft as down--woolens almost as sheer, as transparent as Georgette, woolens that stimulate the reptilian leathers--all new, all holding fashion interest for Autumn!

This but suggests what Bullock's Woolen Goods Section has to offer in the way of new fabrics. Certainly there is a decided tendency toward the more distinctive design as well as toward the small more conventional patterned Coatings. Many of these are found in the softest of Camel's hair and Cachmere Coatings. Among the more distinctive in weave are foreign reptilian Coatings--original in design, rich in Autumn coloring.

The sheer etamine weaves should find favor for Southern California wear--these and "Frostilla," a new knitted fabric with a glossy surface well adapted to sportswear.

MILEY ISSUES FIRST REPORT

Exploration Company Closes Successful Year

Net Profits in Fiscal Period Equal to $1 a Share

Half of Income Written Off for Depreciation

Net earnings of the Miley Petroleum Exploration Company for the fiscal year ended May 31, last, the first year of the company's corporate existence, amounted to approximately $1 a share on the outstanding capital stock, after all charges including depreciation and depletion, according to the company's first fiscal report issued yesterday by M. J. Dean, secretary-treasurer.

For the year ended May 31, last, net income from operations amounted to $11,715,527. Write-off for depreciation and depletion for the period amounted to $10,028,778, or more than one-half of the net income, leaving $1,686,749 available for dividends and surplus.

The company's first quarterly dividend was paid on the last day of August, aggregating $76,488.75. After providing for this dividend, $79,257.74 was carried to the company's surplus account.

Aggregate assets of the company as of May 31, last, amounted to $4,048,481.50, the balance sheet reveals. Of this, $3,202,022.13 represented deferred expenses and general equipment, less depreciation and depletion, $778,459.37 represented deferred expenses and $600,000.00 current assets. Current liabilities amounted to only $687,841, giving the company a net worth of more than 125 to 1.

The Miley Petroleum Exploration Company has an authorized capital of $5,000,000, consisting of 200,000 shares of $25 par value. Of this, 155,550 shares were outstanding on May 31, last, 100,000 shares being held by M. J. Miley, president of the company.

Following the incorporation of the Miley Petroleum Exploration Company a little more than a year ago, the first production was obtained by the company at Huntington Beach, where three wells are now producing. Other wells have since been placed on production at Alamitos Heights. The most outstanding development of the year for the Miley company was the bringing in last February of its Goleta No. 3 well near Santa Barbara, in what was then considered wildcat territory. This well located in the center of a 200-acre lease held by the company was producing from the nearest oil production of importance. Two other wells have been placed on production in this area since the discovery well came in.

Stocks on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday for the most part were lower with the decline being led by the oil and bank issues. Bank of Italy closed 1 1/2 points or to 156 1/2, while Bancitaly Corporation closed 3/4 of a point to 89 1/4 and closed at 88 3/4 for a net loss of 1-1/4 point. First National right slightly, points to 17 and closed 3 points net lower at 17 1/2. First National new stock closed at 43 1/2, and the old closed 7 1/2 points lower at 43. Union Oil of California declined 1/2 point to 42 and Standard Oil of California lost 3/4 of a point to 42 1/2. California Petroleum held at 22 1/2 and Pacific Petroleum at 22 1/2. Western closed fractionally lower at 22. Holly Development lost 3 cents to 1 1/2. Southern California Edison common was strong and added 5/8 of a point to 11 1/2, while the 9 per cent preferred lost a fraction to 2 1/2. Southern Finance A rounded a point to 11 1/2, a new low for the year. Los Angeles Investment closed 1/2 cent higher at 2 1/2, after hitting a new high on the previous day at 2 1/2. Gold dust added 1/4 cent to 2 1/2 and led activity in the mining list. Big American closed 1/4 cent higher at 1 1/2. United American was off 1/4 cent to 4.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (Reuter)—The market continued active today with new range of high record prices obtained. The market closed at 20 1/2 to 21 1/2 cents, with a net gain of 1/2 cent.

Today's advance ranged between 10 and 20 points from Saturday's prices, with October going up to 21 1/2 cents; December, 21 1/2 cents; January, 21 1/2 cents; March, about 21 1/2 cents; and May to 21 1/2 cents. In the last traded rice that occurred on the 21st and 22nd, from the government's bullish crop report, the indicated yield as of the last, 12,400,000 bales without limit. The October option sold to 20 1/2 cents, December, 20 1/2 cents; January, 20 1/2 cents; March, 20 1/2 cents; and May, 20 1/2 cents.

After these prices had been established on general covering of shorts and waves of speculative buying, the market for two days, prices went off about 150 points from those high quotations on general profit-taking by old trade bulls and southern selling, on the belief that the government crop estimate was only 12,000,000 bales too low.

The present rise in the market, which started just a week ago, is predicated on the belief that the next government crop report, due September 6, for the September condition, will indicate a crop in prospect somewhat lower than the last figure, instead of rising. This change of sentiment in the trade has been influenced entirely by too much rain at intervals in the cotton belt since the last fall, accelerating the spread of the boll weevil damage, which is now believed will be the most extensive of any crop since 1923 and 1924.

Because the Liverpool market did not fully respond today to our sharp rise of nearly 54 a bale in price Saturday, there was heavy profit-taking here and also a large amount of new southern selling after the new high records had been made in the early trading. This caused a setback in the market of 45 points on October contracts from the top reached to 34 on December and about 50 on the later months by early in the afternoon.

After that there was a moderate rally, but the market was somewhat unsettled in the last hour's trading by the rapidity of the recent advance in price, checking much new local trade or outside buying. At Liverpool cotton futures regained 32 to 35 of the points and closed with a net gain of but 22 to 24 on the day against 24 to 40 on Saturday.

DOHENY MAY ENTER TEXAS

Rumors of Early Retirement and Sale of Company Nullified if New Program Launched

BY SAMUEL R. CROW
Perhaps some of the reports about the death of E. L. Doheny to retire from the oil business are a little premature. Dispatches from Texas indicate that Mr. Doheny is contemplating an active drilling campaign in the prolific West Texas and Panhandle fields, and will organize the Pan-American Western Petroleum Company of Texas to carry on this development work. This news hardly suggests that the veteran is ready to take a back seat.

At the offices of the Pan-American Southern California fields, in Kern County his company has a substantial output, the total amounting to probably more than 40,000 barrels, not including the shut-in production.

Sale of Arizona Utility Group to Foshay Approved

Purchase of three Arizona public utility companies, Desert Power and Water Company of Claypool and J. W. Water Company of Lower Mesa, Ariz., by the W. B. Foshay Company has been authorized by the Arizona Corporation Commission.

Authorization was also made of the purchase by the Foshay organization of Northwest Light and Water Company of Phoenix, and the Light and Water Company of Mesa, and the Light and Water Company of Phoenix, and the Light and Water Company of Mesa.

Insurance and distribution of securities, as well as the purchase of the number of new capital stock remaining at discounts on the issue price, this being likely either to the public or to investors to require higher prices.

Lien Issue of Packing House on Sale Today

An issue of $400,000 Woodward-Bennett Packing Company 7 per cent cumulative convertible preferred stock, will be offered in this market today by John S. Mitchell & Co. at 100 and accrued dividend to yield 7 1/2.

DOHENY'S RECORD
Ever since Doheny opened up the old Los Angeles field by sinking a pit near the present site of Westlake Park, his drilling crews have either been or closely followed in the exploitation of large holdings, which they plan to hold for some time. The Doheny company would probably adopt a similar policy, retaining any lands acquired as a reserve against a time of need.

Since the organization of the Pan-American Western Petroleum Company, Doheny has opened the most important oil fields in the Los Angeles area, the Seal Beach field; an extension to Ventura area, and built up large production in the other principal

SAFETY ZONES FOR DOLLARS

Practical Ways of Investing in Home Ownership, Savings Accounts, Life Insurance and Dependable Investment Securities

XCIV CONTRIBUTING TO FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE
Can the average man, the wage earner or the salaried worker, become an investor from his savings to the extent of $1000 a year? There is a very direct and ready answer to this question in the statistics on general profit-taking by old trade bulls and southern selling, on the belief that the government crop estimate was only 12,000,000 bales too low.

In 1919, the interest received on bonds, notes and other securities totaled $478 per cent of the total income of Americans having a net income of from $1000 to $2000. In 1924, interest made up 6.68 per cent of the total income of individuals in this class. Individuals in the $2000 to $3000 class realized 5.92 per cent of their total income in 1919 and 6.37 per cent of their whole income in 1924. From this source, 81 per cent of interest accounted for 5.14 per cent of reported net income between $3000 and $4000. In 1924, interest contributed 5.3 per cent of the net income of persons within this class.

THE INVESTOR
Holders of Erie D Bonds Should Convert Before Expiration of Option

BY WILLIAM RUSSELL WHITE
(Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A wider use of purchase warrants and conversion privileges in distributing new bond issues in recent years explains in part the expansion of speculative activity in the bond market.

Many traders have discovered they can speculate with a minimum of risk in bonds carrying conversion privileges. Although these securities are subject to wide fluctuations, they frequently can be purchased advantageously to net handsome profits.

As an example, the Erie Railroad Company's 4 per cent general mortgage bonds of the Erie Railroad Company may be called this year for the first time. For the first time these securities in 1919 the conversion privilege became valuable when the common stock advanced above $50 a share.

As a result of the rise in Erie common to above $55 a share in recent months the Series D bonds have attracted public interest. They are convertible into common stock at $50 a share, so that as long as the conversion privilege continues in effect $100 of the bonds will buy 20 shares of stock. With the stock selling around $52 to $53, the 4 per cent bonds command about 125.

Holders of this issue should remember, however, that as soon as the conversion privilege expires the bonds, which will decline in price to their natural investment level, probably around $4 or $5, where the

United Bank and Trust of San Francisco Acquires Kern County Units

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 22. (Reuter)—In what is the largest and most important financial transaction in the history of the county, the United Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco, of which Senator James D. Phelan is president, has acquired by purchase a majority of the stock of the Security Trust Company, likewise a majority of the stock of the First Bank of Kern.

Both institutions will be conducted as heretofore by the same management and the same board of directors, the difference being that they will have behind them the millions of Senator Phelan's institution, thus giving the Kern county public much larger banking facilities than it has heretofore known.

The sale of the majority stock of the Security Trust Company carries with it the branches of that institution at Taft, Maricopa and Fresno, so that the reality of the United Bank and Trust Company has acquired a majority interest in five Kern county banks through the purchase of stock.

LONDON, Aug. 22. (By Wire)—The markets today, though idle, were steady. The unfavorable feature was the number of new capital stock offerings remaining at discounts on the issue price, this being likely either to the public or to investors to require higher prices.

The shortage of the American cotton crop has attracted some attention to Sudan Plantation shares which were bought from Liverpool.

German trade returns for July show a visible advance of $30,000,000 marks as against $40,000,000. The June export figures were higher than at any other time this year.

Moody's weekly review of financial conditions in its current issue says in part:

A combination of circumstances, including the liquidation of a weak pool, the incidental failure of a stock house and the illness and death of John D. Rockefeller, a prominent rector; but more than 70 per cent thereof has already been recovered.

The time does not seem ripe for any real break in the market.

New bond issues were rather small during July, and the bond market has been placed in a stronger position by the reduced supply of bonds and by the larger volume of funds seeking investment, together with the reductions of redemptive rates.

Over 15,000 employees of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey have been laid off since the company's last year's earnings were $100,000,000.

EARNINGS REPORT OF MANILA ELECTRIC OUT
Net earnings of the Manila Electric Corporation for the year ended December 31, last, as reported yesterday by J. F. McKenna, president, amounted to $1,000,000.

SOVIET OSTRACISM FUTILE

Business Men Generally, Particularly Europeans, Enter Trade Relations Despite Ban

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT
(Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (Reuter)—One interesting sidelight of the Russian situation is that despite all political antagonism and attempts to isolate that country, business men all over the world do not hesitate to enter into business relationship with the soviet.

Orange Sales in Week Run to $2,358,702.22

Orange sales by members of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange in recent weeks have established new records. Volume for a seasonal crop, and have also returned to exchange members more money, according to a statement made yesterday by Dana King, orange-seller manager of the exchange. Exchange sales of citrus fruits for the week ending the 20th inst., returned to California $2,358,702.22.

Less competition this summer from several fruits is offset by an orange crop 1 1/2 per cent larger and running to very much smaller sizes than in 1926, Mr. King said. For several weeks past the average size of exchange Valencia has been 2 1/2 to the box, compared with 2 1/2 for the same period in '26.

The exchange's re-estimate of Valencia as of 1st inst., indicates a reduction of 500 cts., as compared with the estimate of July 1, last. The movement during July was 2500 cars, as compared with 2500 cars during the month of June.

The movement during August, as compared with the estimate of 2500 cars, is 2500 cars, as compared with 2500 cars during the month of June.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. (P)—A deficit of $1,582,019 for the seven months of 1927 is shown by the Minnesota, St. Paul and Seattle R.R. Co., Inc., the Wisconsin Central, against a deficit of $1,590,329 in the same period last year.

Los Angeles Building Bonds Are A Conservative Investment

Bonds secured by modern Los Angeles office buildings have always enjoyed an important place among the holdings of conservative local investors. This popularity has been soundly earned by a record of dependability which has been equaled by few classes of securities.

The following issues, selected from our current list, are representative of the attractive security and liberal income available in bonds of this character. Each one is a BLYTH, WITTER & CO. underwriting, and appraisements, building costs, and other details have undergone our careful scrutiny.

The first is secured by a first mortgage "A" building, story class "A" building, located at 1121 South Hill Street. The second is a leasehold mortgage on the very heart of the business district on West Third Street, facing Pershing Square. The third is secured by the beautiful Beaux Arts Building on the Eighth Street and other Los Angeles business properties on fee.

Detailed circulars describing these offerings will be gladly furnished you without obligation. Phone Mutual 7171, or write for them.

STATE FISH AND GAME CHIEF QUILTS

Connell Resigns After Twenty Years in Office; to Accept New Post

After having served as State Fish and Game Commissioner for twenty years, M. J. Connell resigned the office in a telegram to
Gov. Young last night.

A lifelong sportsman, having fished and hunted in practically every county in the State, the commissioner said, he regretted leaving his work, but will be happy to co-operate with and advise his successor whenever requested to do so and that his interest in the game was unabated.

Mr. Connell declined to elaborate on his reasons for leaving the office and nothing is known of his plans other than as expressed in the telegram, in which he said:

"I am drafted for another non-political job which is of vital importance to the State and which I could not conscientiously accept if I occupied a position under the present administration."

The county government has contributed to the All-Year Club since the organization was formed six years ago and the club directors today are convinced that the greatest benefit to the county is the increased business and prosperity to Los Angeles, which the contributions have brought greater return in increased business and prosperity to the county.

The club's work, the directors said,

INCREASED TAX RATE INDICATED

City Levy Estimated at $1.75,
Gain of 22 Cents

Traffic Plan and Pensions
Most of Difference

Figures Will be Given to Council Tomorrow

The Los Angeles city tax rate this year probably will be 22 cents higher on each $100 property valuation than last year, according to preliminary data made public yesterday at the office of City Controller Myers.

The controller and chief accountant Abbott are now at work on the data and expect to submit this year's tax rate to the City Council tomorrow for adoption.

The preliminary, incomplete figures indicate that this year's rate will be $1.75 on each $100 property valuation, or an increase of 22 cents last year, when the rate was $1.53.

CAUSE OF INCREASE
The increase will largely be due to the 9-cent tax on each $100 property valuation to be used for contributions toward the opening and widening of streets as recommended in the Major Traffic Plan, and 11 cents on each $100 valuation to be levied for the police and fire pensions.

The Major Traffic Plan allocation was authorized by the voters last year and will continue each year for five years, as provided in the charter amendment approved by the people.

This is the first year the Major Traffic tax has been levied, as the charter amendment provided that the levy should begin with the 1927 tax year. The pension tax also is new, as heretofore pensions were paid from the general fund. It will be necessary to also $1,750,000 deficit in the pension fund in order
to place $100 property valuation made to liquidate it. $12,000,000 deficit in the pension fund in order
to place $100 property valuation made to liquidate it.

San Francisco hospital.

Mr. Clark has been a preacher for the past fourteen years. He was associated with the Assemblies of God, a Pentecostal organization, at Springfield, Mo., with which Mrs. McPherson also was associated before coming to California and founding Angels Temple.

His letter of resignation Clark states that he cannot endorse the wearing of uniforms and the conferring of degrees and that he is planning to leave the church.

Other preachers in the Echo Park
Evangelistic Association also share his belief. Mr. Clark said, and he also expressed his disapproval of the instructions issued by Mrs. McPherson that Mrs. Kennedy is not to be allowed to speak from her pulpit.

Mr. Clark plans to return to the evangelistic field under the banner of the Assemblies of God denomination.
He preached Sunday in San Diego.

The objection was brought by Mrs. Emily Hawkins, 84-year-old grandmother of Miss Mathis and as it had been filed only a few hours before the will was due for probate, it caused considerable surprise. By the will, which appeared in the San Diego Union-Examiner, Mrs. Mathis was named as sole heiress-at-law and a half of the community property. The will
was filed for probate in the San Diego Superior Court.

Should the grandmother win in the first proceedings, she will obtain Mrs.
Mathis' separate estate in fee as sole heiress-at-law and a half of the community property. The will
was filed for probate in the San Diego Superior Court.

There was no drama at any stage of the proceedings yesterday. The case moved along with order and unimpaired precision. Only at one stage of the case was there even a sign of a flurry and that was before the matter actually got under Judge Guerin, a few minutes before the case started, issued a typewritten statement that he declared bluntly and in measured words that allegations of matters prior to the marriage would not be considered.

Likewise, the more unwelcome charges contained in Mrs. Chaplin's complaint because they lacked corroboration. He ruled temporarily against the admission of such evidence in order to proceed with the case. He has heard the same time he ruled against evidence reflecting against either Charlie or Lita as co-guardians of the babies.

The statement caught the attorneys unawares. But they soon calmed down. Edwin F. McMurray, chief of Mrs. Chaplin's counsel and her uncle, arose and called the court's decision into question.

NAME CHANGE PROTESTED
The Inglewood Chamber of Commerce yesterday protested to the City Council against any change of the name of Manchester avenue.

Richard Murphy, 58 years of age, of Fifth and Wall streets, a carpenter, was killed in Tustin Sunday night when he stepped from behind his car and started across the road at the intersection of the San Diego and Newport highways. He was struck by the car of B. W. Tye of 3613 Park Boulevard, San Diego, according to deputy sheriffs of Orange county, who arrested Tye on a charge of having a jug of whiskey in his car.

T. W. Melville of 3348 Bewick street, companion of Murphy, also was held for investigation. Melville said they ran out of gas and Murphy started for a service station.
His body was taken to Santa Ana.

Residents of California and other States have a much better idea of what is going on at the national capital than people living in the shadows of the White House. Frank Hight, manager of the Washington Hotel of Washington, D. C., declared here yesterday.

"We who live in Washington," he said, "often are too close to the throne, as it were, to grasp the significance of the events transpiring at our very doors. Sometimes the affairs of major importance to the nation are made obscure to our vision by the rush of many minor matters."

Might also declared that easterners do not realize the delightful beauty and charm of Southern California and its climate and never will be able to do so until they have made a visit to the South.

He was a guest of James Woods, vice-president of the Baltimore, yesterday on a tour of the city, and left last night for San Francisco.

MAHOOD LOCKED UP
But two policemen called on him with a written order from Mayor Blanchard to surrender his keys to city property and to refrain from handling city records. The deputy clerk refused.

Then the policemen, according to Mahood, used force and violence to remove him from the clerk's office and lodge him behind locked doors of police headquarters. Soon after he was released and drove the mayor's orders he remained on duty in the clerk's office where safely guarded by the police.

While the deputy clerk stood guard over the mayor's records, the mayor ordered the deputy clerk to be removed from his office. The deputy clerk refused.

Permanent Pricings

Our merchandise is marked only once and that one price prevails at all times.

When you select a thirty-five or eighty-five dollar suit, you may be assured that you have paid the lowest price for which that particular suit will ever be sold.

That's rather an advantage, don't you think?

POISON HEARING DELAYED

Asserted Pseudo Doctor Accused of Giving Lethal Pills in Order to Obtain Man's Wife

Declaring he desired more time to prepare the defense of Dr. Nelson Smith, asserted pseudo physician accused of administering poison to Peter Thomas, P. O. C. yesterday succeeded in having the preliminary hearing continued to the 30th inst.

Consett, a radio experimenter, living at 802 Cloverdale street, swore to the complaint against Smith after installing a microphone in his wife's bedroom to get evidence against the asserted home-breaker.

Health pills Smith gave to the husband while posing as a physician, proved to contain mercuric salts, strychnine and digitalis, according to an analysis, police reported.

Consett, who accused Smith of a plot to get rid of him that he might continue the courtship with Mrs. Thomas, Consett said he and Smith had been friends since they struck up an acquaintance on a train three years ago.

Municipal Judge McConnell continued the $2500 bail, on which Smith is at liberty.

'Chicken' Seller Cooped to Face Dry Act Charge

"Chickens" which came home to roost caused the arrest of Patsy Bruno, 35 years of age, at 650 1/2 Catalina street, by Detective Lieutenants McCord and Margolis yesterday.

The officers became suspicious, they asserted, when, in response to orders from customers who demanded "chickens," Patsy always produced the same sort of packages from a so-called "chicken shack" at the Catalina street address.

An investigation disclosed the presence of fifteen gallons of liquor, according to the officers, so Bruno was taken into custody and booked on Wright act charges.

Freedom for Suspect Brief

Released from jail yesterday after being a guest of the city for a year, Pat Dougherty, 32 years of age, released from San Francisco prison, was taken into custody less than fifteen minutes after gaining freedom from Lincoln Heights stockade by the same officer who arrested him more than a year ago during a police crusade to rid the city of imported gunmen.

Detective Lieutenant McCord, who made the arrest, booked the prisoner as a fugitive from San Francisco, where he is said to be wanted on non-support charges.

EVERYONE'S WISHING

It "Deal in Eternity" Goes Through Alimony Tangle Ends

Everyone concerned has the best of wishes for the "deal in eternity" of which Edmund Arthur told Judge Montgomery yesterday. Arthur hopes it will go through because he may go to jail otherwise. Mrs. Josie Arthur hopes so, because if it does she gets $400.

And Judge Montgomery heartily wishes it to go through because it does settle one of his alimony matters.

Mrs. Arthur got a divorce several months ago on a complaint that her husband had succumbed to the charms of a woman. But she has not been getting her alimony regularly and she had Arthur before the court yesterday to explain it.

"I have no money but I have a deal in eternity," was all Arthur could say.

"Well, let's see how the deal comes out," Judge Montgomery said. "Maybe you can pay up and I won't have to jail you."

Oil-Station Bandits Given Prison Terms

Ernest McFadden and Austin Rollan, convicted oil-station bandits, were sentenced by Judge Bishop yesterday to serve terms in San Quentin, ranging from fourteen years to life.

McFadden had been convicted of five counts of robbery and Rollan of eight counts of robbery and one of assault with a deadly weapon. Sentence was pronounced after Judge Bishop had denied a motion for a new trial.

ACCUSER OF TEMPLE STAFF MEMBER FREED

Fred C. Brandt, who complained to the police last week that the master-at-arms at Alhambra Temple McPherson's Lighthouse of the Four Squares Gospel manhood and robbed him, was released under parole yesterday after Judge Lamberson presiding over the Lunacy Commission, had heard testimony in insanity proceedings.

Judge Lamberson held that the man was harmless, and ordered him freed with instructions that the parole officers keep an eye on him.

SUSPECTED NARCOTIC AGENT TAKEN IN RAID

Fred Higgins, 30 years of age, was arrested yesterday by officers of the police narcotic squad and booked at the City Jail as a violator of the State Police Act. Higgins is said by the officers to have sold large quantities of narcotics which he received by mail from San Francisco.

The officers said they found several boxes of narcotics in a closet at Higgins' home, 1408 Connecticut street, and a number of package wrappers bearing a San Francisco address. Postal authorities will investigate the officers said.

EMERGENCY FUND GIVE

Acting Mayor Bonelli has approved of an appropriation of $15,000 from the federal fund to complete the construction of a new building for engine No. 17, at 2100 East Seventh street. The construction of the new building for the company is to be located in the new building. This will cost $44,000, and the appropriation was necessary to complete the fund available for the purpose.

NEW JEWISH TEMPLE FOR LOS ANGELES

Rabbi Trattner Will Head Religious Community at Eighth and Burlington

Sponsored by many of the leading Jews of the city, a new temple will be opened at Eighth and Burlington Friday under the name of "The City Temple." It will have as its leader Rabbi Ernest R. Trattner, who has been minister and lecturer here for many years.

Dr. Trattner was educated at the Hebrew Union College at Cincinnati and has studied at the University of Chicago as well as in the sociology branch of the University of Southern California. He is one of the youngest in point of age of the local ministers and has been preaching since his thirteenth birthday.

Plans already have been perfected for opening services at the coming High Holy Days, which occur the latter part of September and during the first week in October. These are known as the Jewish New Year and Day of Atonement.

In addition to the main auditorium the structure contains a number of lecture halls and twenty Sunday-school rooms for the Sunday-school will be held Sunday morning, September 4, at 10 o'clock. Dr. Trattner's first lecture for City Temple will be "The Meaning of God in Human Experience."

Registration for the Sunday-school will be held Sunday morning, September 4, at 10 o'clock. Dr. Trattner's first lecture for City Temple will be "The Meaning of God in Human Experience."

FIVE BATTLE LIQUOR CASE INDICTMENT

Defendants in Orange County Theft Voice Not Guilty Plea to Charges

Plea of not guilty were entered yesterday before Federal Judge McCormick by five defendants in the theft last August of eighty cases of liquor from the Orange County Jail. The case will be called September 12 for setting.

The five who pleaded not guilty are Ray Wallace, Claude Williams, Herbert Elrod, Walter Smith and Ora Hobbs. The government is continuing its search for three others indicted but who have never been apprehended. They are Frank W. Roper, W. E. Knowlton and Charles R. Roper.

Correspondent Dies in Russia

Word of the death of Walter C. Whiffen, 37 years of age, Associated Press correspondent at Moscow, Russia, was received yesterday by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nellie O. Boyer, 1008 North Gardner street, who died suddenly following an operation for intestinal trouble. His wife, Mrs. Whiffen, a pianist, at present is in New York City. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Maud Regent of Washington, D. C.

Whiffen was sent to Moscow last spring. Previously for nine years he held a similar position in Peking, China, and before that had served in Petrograd, and in Mexico City.

Russian Diva to Sing at Church

Meetings are to be held in the Church of the Open Door September 1 and 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the interests of the Russian Missionary Society of which Pastor William Mettler is the founder and general director.

Mrs. Maria Karinska, who sang eleven times before the late Cesar and his family as well as before the royal families of Persia, China and Japan, is to sing.

Rev. Oswald J. Smith, who preaches in the Trinity Auditorium every Sunday afternoon, is to speak on "My Visit to the Russian Mission Fields, the Perils and Hardships Encountered and the Story of the Great Revival in Poland." His message will be illustrated on the second night by seventy-five stereoscopic slides of photos taken on the field.

Kerchief Clew in Baby Death

A woman's dainty handkerchief, bearing a small design of a flower, was the only clue uncovered yesterday by Deputy Sheriff which may lead to the identity of the parents of a newly-born baby, whose mangled body was found yesterday in front of 310 Whittier Boulevard.

It was indicated that the body may have fallen out of a passing car and then was run over several times by other cars. The body was taken to the mortuary of Edward Stewart of Whittier.

NEW BOOK OF HYMNS

A display in the Southern California Music Company window shows a new book of hymns recently published by Dr. Henry C. Culbertson, author of the words of the songs, and Theophilus Pitt, who composed the music. The book offers active hymns dealing with the experience and spiritual visions of the twelve apostles of Jesus. Dr. Culbertson is pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church and a popular speaker with the KJL Sunday.

SECRETARIES COSTLY

As the City Council's stock of fifteen new private secretaries will go to work on September 1, the Council yesterday was asked to purchase several typewriters for the secretaries. The Council already has bought a flock of desks and provided for the salaries of the young women. The typewriters will cost $1225.

TITLE WRITER GETS RIFLE

A German-made Luger sporting rifle is being exhibited to his friends by Ralph Spence, playwright and title writer. The rifle was presented to Spence by Jackie Coogan in appreciation of the title written for the lad's latest picture, "Buttons."

SHOOTING ECHOES QUARREL

Wounding of Pair Laid to Man's Attempt to Get Gun After Row With Cafe Proprietor

Incensed at what he regarded as an exorbitant price charged him for a small order in a restaurant, Brent Gardner, 39 years of age, engaged in a hot debate with the proprietor, then ran home to procure a weapon to settle the argument, according to police.

When Gardner started back to the cafe with his revolver, his mother, Mrs. Ida Gardner, 58, attempted to restrain him, and in the struggle which ensued the weapon was discharged. One bullet took effect in Gardner's arm and another grazed his mother's hand.

They were treated at Receiving Hospital by Police Surgeon Spear, after which Gardner was booked at the seventy-seventh division station on charges of suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon. The mother was not seriously injured and returned to her home after having her hand bandaged.

Wife Divorced From Veteran of Civil War

Daniel D. Alton, 84-year-old Civil War veteran, lost his wife yesterday by the divorce-court route. Judge Alton granted Mrs. America Lee Alton a decree on grounds of cruelty. The case had been on trial for two days and promised to be bitterly contested, but was rapidly brought to a conclusion when attorneys for the parties reached an agreement of property affairs.

Wrong Man Held in Murder Case

Testimony offered by Fred Bixby, rancher, yesterday resulted in the exoneration of Donatiano Res, 24 years of age, charged with knifing to death Juan Campos on the 6th inst.

Bixby testified that Res was mistaken for Lucio Fuentes as the murderer of Campos, all three of whom were employed on the Bixby ranch. Immediately following Campos' death, Fuentes was held by the sheriff.

On motion of Dep. Dist. Atty. Clarke, Municipal Judge Poe dismissed the charge against Res. Authorities are now seeking the accused murderer.

Young People to Meet at Church

A young people's meeting will be held today at 7:45 p.m. in Woodlawn Methodist Episcopal Church, Woodlawn and Santa Barbara avenues, to discover the attitude of the American youth relative to the Eighteenth Amendment, law enforcement, vice and atheism. The young people's branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be in charge.

Added Fees for Dealers Backed

The Retail Meat Dealers Association yesterday, in a communication to the City Council, expressed the association's approval of an ordinance requiring the payment of a fee by those food stores desiring to keep open after regular closing hours.

The fee is to pay the expense of health-department inspection.

Eleven in Tests for Position of Bee Inspector

Under the provisions of the new California apiculture law the first examinations for the position of inspectors of apiaries for the various counties was given here yesterday under the supervision of the State Department of Agriculture. Eleven candidates, representing most of the southern California counties, took the examination, which consisted of a written test covering the phases of inspection outlined in the recently enacted law, and an oral test dealing with the technicalities of bee disease control.

Officer as Sheik Makes Dry Raid

Receiving complaints that liquor was being sold to youths at 1612 1/2 West thirty-eighth street, Police Officer Jordan, assisted himself in some juvenile toga and visited the address with high hopes of making a "buy," he reported to his superiors.

After posing as a student at a local high school the officer succeeded in buying from Edward Gallagher a quart of assorted "real good liquor," Jordan declared.

As a result Gallagher was taken into custody on a charge of possessing thirteen quarts of liquor. Police Officer Smith, Brown and Friend entered the place on Jordan's signal and recovered a marked money pocketed by Gallagher.

Municipal Judge Bush set September 19 as the date for trial when Gallagher pleaded not guilty to the charge.

PLANE LINES PLANNED BY DICK FERRIS

Promoter States He Will Get Eastern Capital to Back Projected Service

A network of air lines covering principal points between San Diego, Los Angeles and Chicago is being planned by Dick Ferris, who states, says he has interested eastern capital in the movement and states negotiations are under way with airplane manufacturers and western cities which will be covered.

San Diego and Los Angeles are to represent the western terminals of air lines, according to Ferris, the two branches joining at Phoenix, Arizona. The lines will serve Douglas, Tucson, the Grand Canyon, El Paso, San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Galveston and through to New Orleans. The more northern line will go through Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago, the promoter states.

Ferris plans to carry express, mail and passengers, and if suitable planes cannot be built here, he states, he will obtain a fleet of Ford all-metal planes will be made. His scheme calls for both local and limited through planes.

Ferris has been identified with transportation matters here previously, having organized the Yellow Cab Company. He has also been identified with the automobile industry.

Remember these FACTS when you trade-in your present car

YOU want full value for your present car, but most of all you want full new car value. It will therefore pay you to look beyond the trade-in offers and consider these basic facts:

- 1 Your present car has only one fundamental basis of value: i.e., what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 2 Your present car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 3 The largest allowance offered is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 First judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your present car.
- 6 Remember that you are making a purchase—not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply using your present car as a credit against the new car's purchase price.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

Recipes for recipes and information regarding the proper preparation and serving of foods will be found in this column every Tuesday. Address all requests to Chief A. L. Wynn, Los Angeles Times, 612 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

FIG CONSERVE.
E. S. R. Pasadena, Cal.: In making the conserve fruit or dried figs can be used. If the dried figs are used, cover them with cold water, and let stand overnight. Drain and weigh the same as the fresh figs. To make the conserve chop into small pieces four pounds of fresh or dried figs, two oranges, peeled and pulsed, and one pound of seeded raisins. Place in a kettle, add three pounds of sugar and cook until the figs and orange peel are clear and the mixture is thick. Add one pound of broken walnut meats, cook five minutes, pack into jars while hot, seal quickly, and process in boiling water for thirty-five minutes.

PRESERVED FIGS.
To prepare gather even-sized ripe figs, not split figs, wash and place in a solution. Cover with water.

Aeronautic Developers in Southland Plan Banquet Tomorrow for W. Frank James

Commanding officers of Southern California's flying field, the board of directors of the National Aeronautic Association, Southern California Chapter, and several authorities on aeronautics will attend a banquet to be given in honor of Representative W. Frank James, setting chairman of the Military Affairs Committee now making a tour of inspection of the flying fields of the United States and the Hawaiian Islands. The banquet will be at the Ambassador tomorrow evening.

Location of the Los Angeles municipal airport will be discussed at the banquet. It is sponsored by the Aero Digest in co-operation with the board of directors of the National Aeronautic Association, Southern California chapter.

COOKED MAYONNAISE.
C. L. McFar, Los Angeles, Cal.: Mix the yolks of three well-beaten eggs with one tablespoonful of olive oil, one teaspoonful of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of salt, and two teaspoonfuls of dry mustard. Mix well, and beat in half a cupful of vinegar, and one cupful of light cream. Place in a double boiler, and stir until thick and smooth. Use as desired. This will keep in the ice box for some time.

PICKLED PEARS.
Mrs. MacP, Los Angeles: Peel eight pounds of pears with a silver knife and drop them in a bowl of water to which has been added a little lemon juice. Make a syrup of three cups of sugar and four cups of water. Place in a saucepan, four cups of sugar, three cups of water, and one black pepper, one-inch piece of cinnamon, place the spices in the syrup, and cook for ten minutes. Remove the peel, carefully lay in the figs, and cook for ten minutes. Skim out the figs, and pack wide-mouthed jars two-thirds full with them. Bring the syrup to a boil and pour over the figs, seal the jars, and store in a cool, dark place. Note: Fresh figs are not very palatable made into pies or puddings. Use the dried figs for that purpose.

WHITE LAYER CAKE (WALNUT).
P. E. R. Los Angeles, Cal.: Beat half a cupful of butter to a cream and gradually beat in two cups of sifted sugar, beat until light and creamy. Beat the whites of four eggs to a stiff froth, and beat them into the creamed butter and sugar. Add a little at a time. Sift three and a quarter cups of sifted flour and one level teaspoonful of baking powder and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, and add to the mixture alternately with one cupful of milk, beating vigorously all the time. Add one-half a cupful of chopped walnuts, and beat three minutes. Pour into floured and buttered cake tins and bake in a moderate oven.

SALT-RISE BREAD.
J. T. Munro, Los Angeles, Cal.: For the salt-raise bread pour two cups of boiling water over half a cupful of a cupful of stone-ground cornmeal, beat smooth and set in a warm place overnight. In the morning add to the mixture one cupful of warm milk, one cupful of warm water, two level teaspoons of salt, and two cups of sifted dry flour, beat smooth, cover and set in a warm place for two hours, or until it is light and spongy. Add one teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of lard, and enough sifted dry flour to make a soft dough. Knead fifteen minutes, form into loaves, place in a greased bread pan, let rise in a warm place one hour or until light, bake in a medium oven, one hour. Wrap in a clean cloth and cool on a wire rack.

RAVIOLI.
C. C. A. Los Angeles, Cal.: The paste for the ravioli is made by mixing two cups of sifted flour with half a teaspoonful of salt, two whole eggs, and enough water to make a stiff dough. Knead until smooth and firm, roll out to half an inch in thickness and let stand fifteen minutes. Divide in two equal parts, and roll each piece in a square sheet, lift the sheets so that they will dry. With a ravioli rolling pin or tracing wheel make one place of two-inch squares, in the center of each square place a rounding teaspoonful of ravioli filling. Brush the other place of paste with egg white, press down between the squares with the ravioli rolling pin, cover with a piece of cheese cloth and set in a warm place until thoroughly dry. Separate each ravioli in boiling consommé or boiling salted water for fifteen minutes. Drain well, place on a hot plate, cover with Italian sauce and sprinkle over grated Parmesan cheese.

RAVIOLI FILLING.
Mix one cupful of finely chopped cold cooked chicken or veal with two finely chopped cold cooked calves' brains, half a cupful of bread crumbs soaked in milk, and seasoned dry, one teaspoonful of onion juice, one teaspoonful of nutmeg, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of thyme, one teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of paprika, one cupful of spinach puree and the yolks of two eggs.

PICKLED NASTURTIUM SEEDS.
M. N. Los Angeles, Cal.: It takes one year from the time the pickle is put up until they are ready for use. To make: Pick young, green Nasturtium seeds, wash well with cold water, and cover with cold water to which has been added half a cupful of salt to each four cups of water used. Let stand overnight. Drain and dry well with a soft cloth, pack in clean bottles and pour over a cold spiced vinegar made by adding four cups of vinegar, four tablespoonfuls of tarragon vinegar, four tablespoonfuls of horseradish, four tablespoonfuls of salt, two whole cloves, and twelve peppercorns. Seal tight. Let stand twelve months and use in the place of capers.

BROILED FISH FEET.
J. F. Los Angeles, Cal.: Clean and split two large fish feet, tie tightly with a string, and place in a saucepan with four cups of meat stock or broth. A seasoning of salt and pepper, one sliced carrot, one onion, a bay leaf, a clove, two shallots of celery and a little thyme. Cover and cook for three hours, drain, remove the bones, place the meat in a small bowl with a weight on top, cold dip in melted butter, roll in bread crumbs, and broil a nice brown. Serve hot with tartar sauce or cream sauce to which has been added some butter mushrooms.

CALVES LIVER JARDINIÈRE.
Have the butcher broil calf's livers with strips of firm salt pork. Chop one onion, one carrot, one green pepper, and cover the bottom of a baking dish with them, also use one-half a cupful of chopped celery. Lay the broiled calves' liver on the vegetables and pour in one and a half cupful of stock or water and bake one hour, basting occasionally. Season when the baking is half-done with salt and pepper. Serve on a hot platter with the vegetables placed around the meat.

ORANGE BREAD.
Mrs. F. Los Angeles, Cal.: The recipe for orange bread was printed in the Practical Recipe Column of the Times on the 9th inst. Back numbers may be obtained at the Times office, at First and Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE AID AT EXHIBIT

Expert of Globe Milling Company Each Monday at Manufacturers' Show

Mrs. W. Peterson of the Globe Milling and Domestic Science department is offering a worth-while service to the public each Monday afternoon in the patio of the manufacturers' exhibit of Southern California, Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

The building trades' hour each Monday at 2 p.m. in the home building section of the exhibit is meeting with wide interest and will be one of the most profitable services of the exposition during September in bringing manufacturers, dealers and home builders together.

Congress Murphy will deliver a free lecture, at 8 o'clock tonight in the lecture room of the exhibit on vocational guidance. This is open to the public, and is of special interest to industrial employees.

George Armstrong of the domestic science section of the Bureau of Food and Light will hold her weekly Wednesday afternoon electrical appliance class at 1 o'clock in the patio.

Thursday of each week is open-house day in the exhibit for merchants and manufacturers and their friends. This is the one day on which the exhibit is kept open till 10 p.m. for the entire week.

Everyone is welcome—everything is free—a permanent exposition of the industrial growth of the great Southwest.

PALOMARES OBSEQUIES TOMORROW

Mass to be Said for Scion of Old Spanish Families; Promising Attorney

Funeral services for Eleanore Palomares, 25 years of age, descended from two of the oldest and best known Spanish families in Southern California, will be conducted tomorrow morning when a mass will be said in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Palomares died last Saturday morning at the Osteopathic Hospital.

Eleanore Palomares was the son of Porfirio Palomares, who still retains property at Pomona once included in the great land grant of Francisco Palomares nearly 300 years ago. On the maternal side the young man was descended from Bernardo Yorba, another holder of a great rancho near Santa Ana, whose great-grandfather he was.

Young Palomares was educated at Loyola College in Los Angeles and later was graduated from Santa Clara College, receiving the degree of bachelor of arts and doctor of jurisprudence. At the time he was sick he was engaged in the practice of law with Messrs. Munger, Hughes & Robinson. He was a member of the Alpha Gamma, in which he actively participated.

Besides his parents he leaves Mario, Eugenio, and Eleanore Palomares, sisters. Interment will be made at Calvary Cemetery.

Woman Lawyer Leaves for East

Mrs. Oda Paulson, attorney, left last night to attend the American Bar Association convention which opens in Buffalo September 30.

Mrs. Paulson is vice-president of the San Francisco Bar Association. She will be the only woman representative from California attending the annual meeting. On the 20th inst. she will represent the W. R. Meredith heirs in a $5,000,000 suit which opens in Washington, Ind. The woman attorney will appear in behalf of the nine California heirs, previously having been admitted to practice in the Davies county Circuit Court of Davies county, Indiana.

RAMISH FACING USURY CHARGES

Julian Receivers Act to Regain $456,000

Theater Magnate Denies He Profited on Deals

Dr. Lickley Continues Fight to Get Back Money

In continuance of their fight to get back money obtained through asserted usury, M. L. Carnahan and Joseph Scott, Julian Petroleum Corporation receivers, yesterday filed a complaint in Superior Court against Adolph Ramish, capitalist and theater magnate, asking the return of $456,000 to the Julian Corporation.

The complaint, naming eight counts, charges that Ramish in each case received $28,500 on each of several loans of $100,000 for a month's use. Ramish, who cannot be reached for comment, is the subject of an indictment on usury charges.

Ramish said last night that he had repaid part cash and part Julian stock, but that the amount of cash had not reached the principal and that he had made no profit on the deal.

LEWIS B. CHASE SUED.
Another suit also was filed by Carnahan and Scott as receivers for the California Eastern Oil Company, seeking the collection of $10,000 from Lewis B. Chase on a promissory note.

Dr. E. J. Lickley, city prosecutor, continued his campaign to clean up the usury situation by issuing five additional John Doe complaints. Dr. Lickley says he will continue to issue the usury complaints at the rate of five a day until all cases under investigation are proved or disproved.

Another well with a producing rate ranging from 2000 to 2100 barrels, the Raymond & Larrea well No. 1, was brought in yesterday morning at the Los Alamitos holdings, according to an announcement made by Col. F. E. Foster, manager of the Julian Petroleum Corporation.

This is the tenth well to be brought in under the receivership of Mr. Carnahan and Mr. Scott.

INJURED YOUTH FOUND LYING ON RAILROAD TRACK

Oven Dresser, 19 years of age, of 2801 South Main street, was found unconscious on the Southern Pacific tracks yesterday near the 4000 block of Valley Boulevard, and is assumed to have fallen from a moving train.

His skull and jaw are fractured, it was said at the Receiving Hospital. He was transferred to the General Hospital.

Police said they learned the youth quarreled with his father Sunday night and announced his intention of leaving home. He was seen on the tracks by Engineer J. O. Knepper, operating a westbound train, who stopped his engine and picked up the injured youth. Dresser's condition is serious.

Auto Crash May Result Fatally

George Skolfield, 4610 South Gramercy Place, a Manual Arts High School boy, suffered injuries on the way to Yosemite Park Sunday morning which may result in death.

With his brothers, Stuart and Herbert, the latter at the wheel, he was passing through McFarland when the car collided with one driven by G. F. Kearse.

According to Stuart Skolfield, both cars were being driven about thirty miles an hour when Kearse swung far to the left at a street crossing.

NEW STUDIO LOAN GROUP ORGANIZED

Money Will Be Provided to Needy Employees at Low Rate of Interest

An initial step toward organizing film studio employees into a more compact filial body as planned at a meeting of various studio executives recently has just been made. This week at Universal City with the incorporation of the Universal Studio Credit Union with a capital of $50,000, according to an announcement by President Carl Laemmle.

The purpose of the union, according to C. W. Deming, in charge of personnel at the studio, who has been engaged for the past month in forming the corporation, is to establish a fund from which needy employees of the studio may borrow money at a low rate of interest.

The union is patterned after the employees' savings institutions that have been in effect in Europe for the past fifty years, and was introduced in this country seventeen years ago by a Boston department store, since that time it has been adopted by scores of business corporations throughout the country. An act to allow the incorporation of such a union in California was passed by the State Legislature.

Leo H. Shapiro, San Francisco attorney, who has been working with Deming on details of the corporation, placed the plan.
